FOREWORD

For some, time on College Hill seems to go by so slowly . . . for others . . . especially the Seniors . . . it appears to speed, it encompasses a great many events and experiences . . . some significant . . . others of little apparent consequence . . .

To us the editors and staff members of the Alfarata has been given the task of printing a living picture of these happenings . . . the task of recapturing the excitement . . . the anxiety . . . the happiness . . . aroused by the most notable events of the year as well as those everyday incidentals . . . the task of recapturing the memories and friendships of the past year . . .

It is to you for whom time appears to have wings . . . it is to you the Class of 1959 that we present this edition of the Alfarata with the sincerest hope that within the covers of this book can be found those things which in the years to come will be pleasant reminders of your days spent on College Hill . . .

FALL

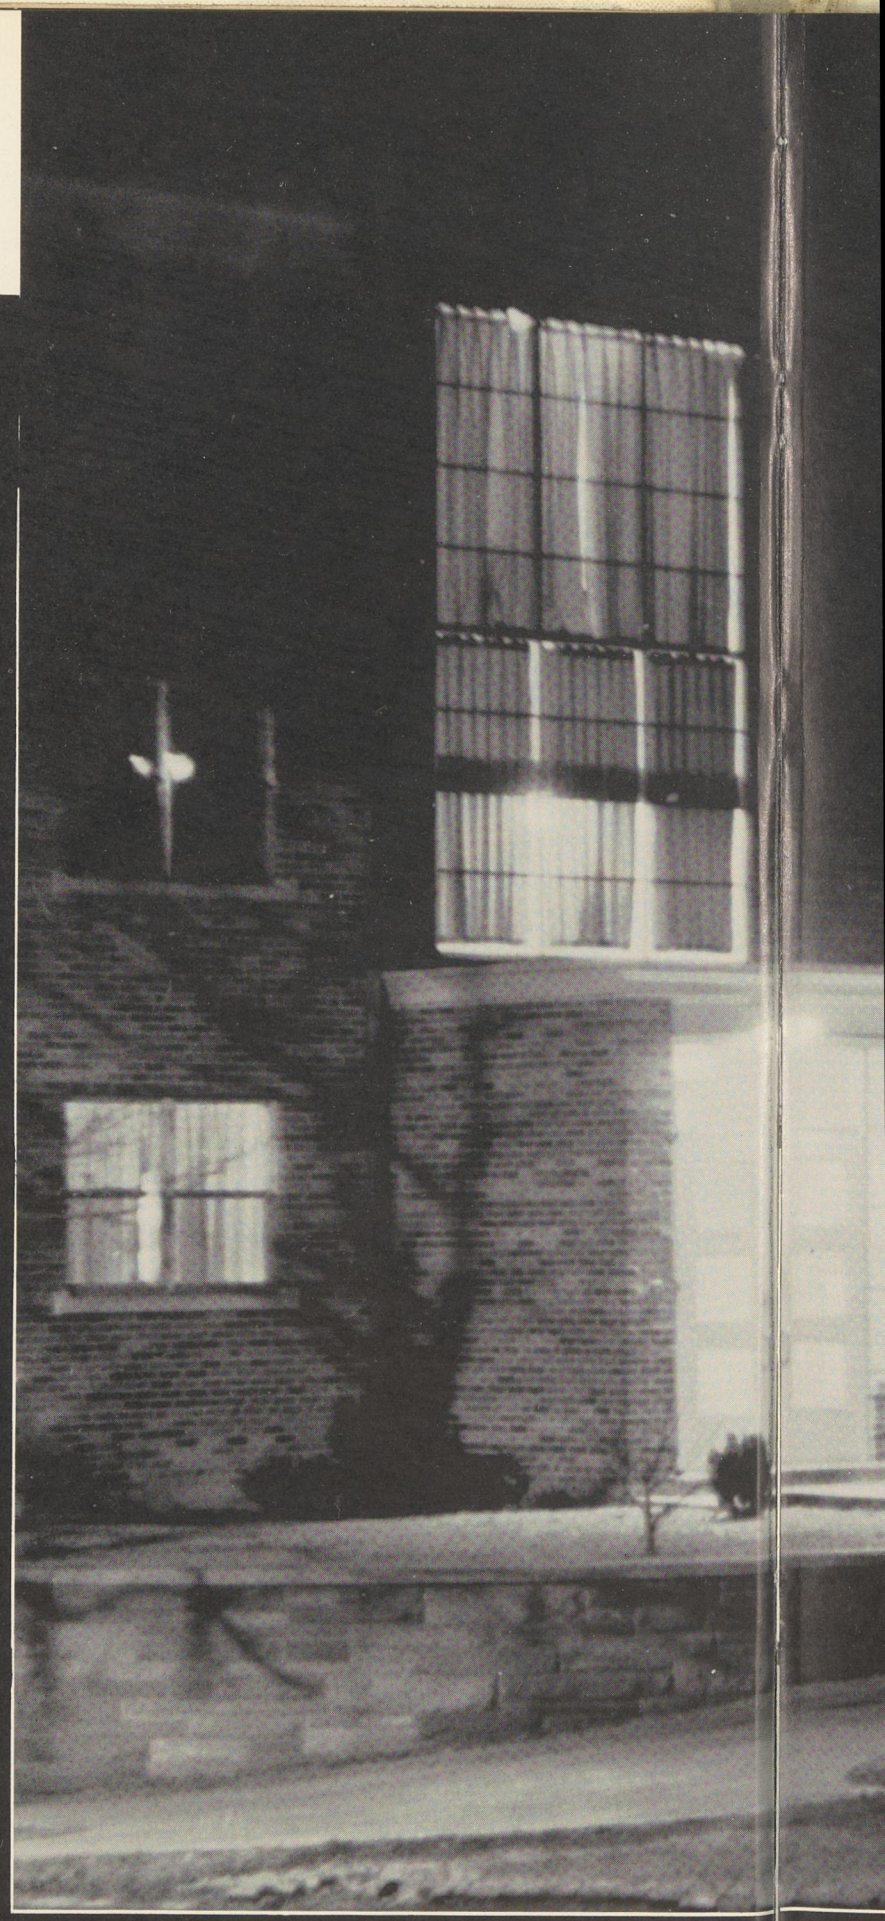
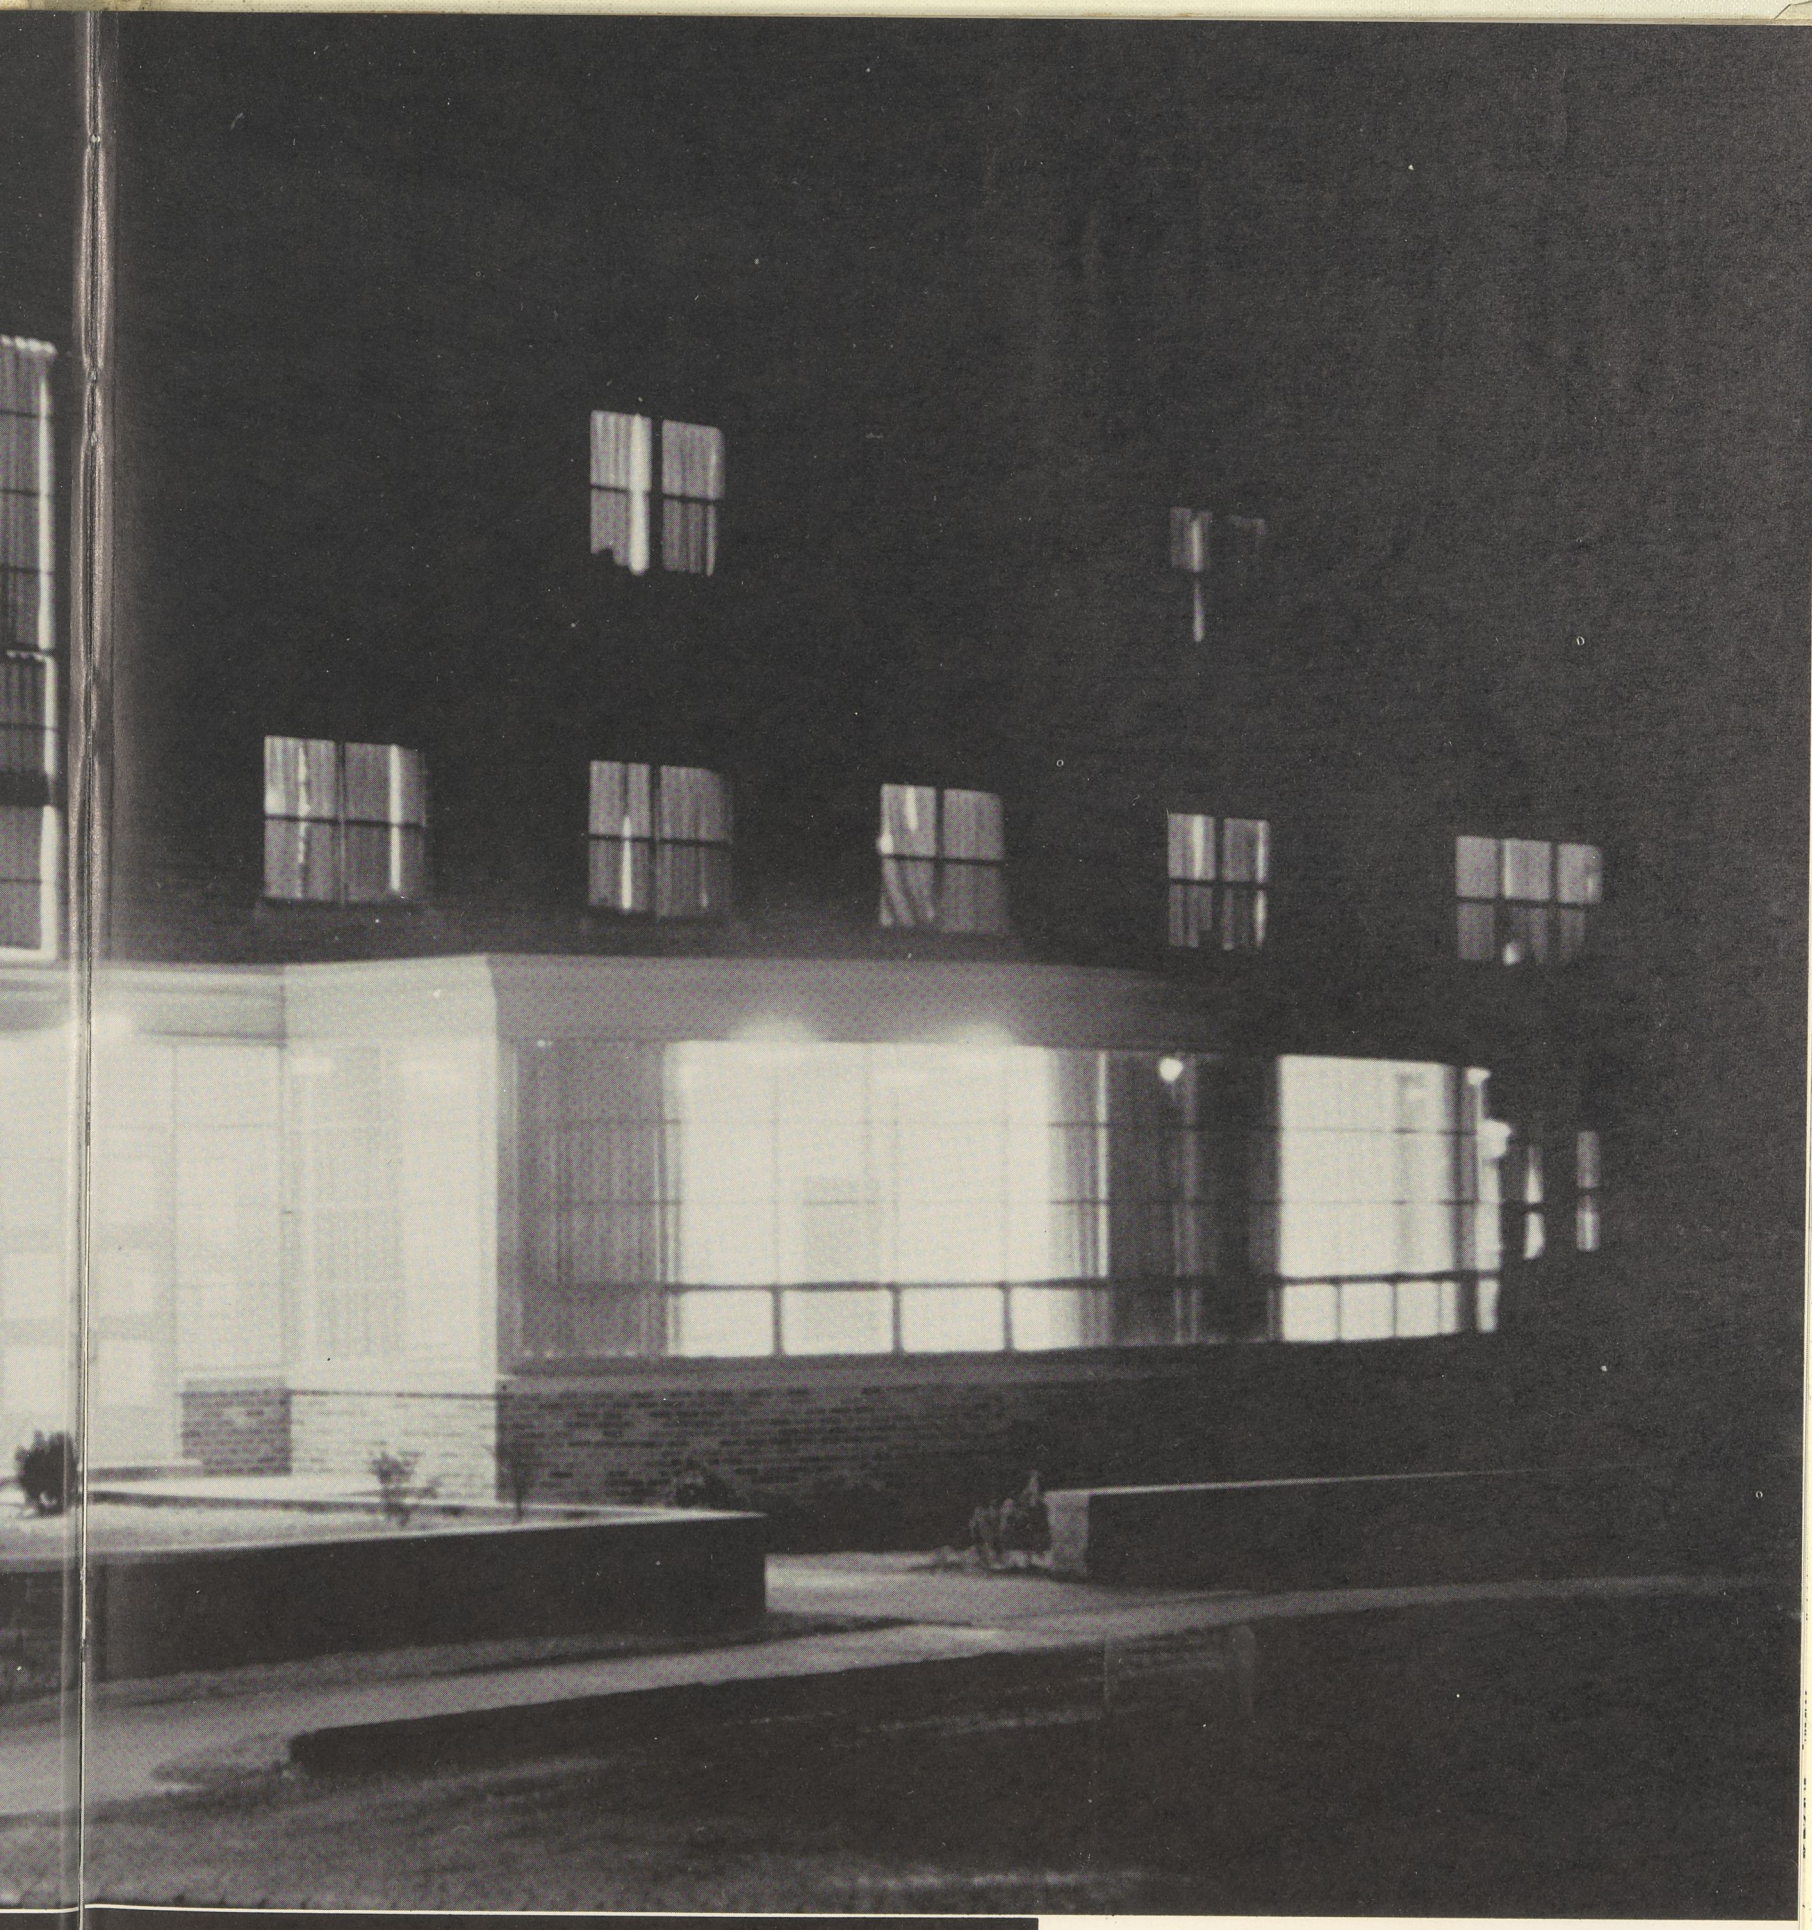
AUTUMN

Summer with its heat, its work and its carefree play passed all too quickly for many of us . . . but still we looked forward to the approaching season of Autumn . . . a season full of splendor . . . a season of blending . . . not only of colors in nature . . . but also of personalities on a college campus . . . President Ellis . . . other members of the administration . . . and student leaders had begun preparation for this blending long before the return of Upperclassmen to JC . . . long before the arrival of Freshmen on College Hill . . . suddenly the season was upon us . . . and the different hues were brought forth in classes . . . in participation in . . . or enthusiasm for the fall sports . . . and in preparation for that memorable Homecoming Week-end . . .





ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY . . .

PRESIDENT OF JUNIATA

President Calvert N. Ellis, Juniata's sixth president . . . is highly esteemed by both the students and the faculty . . . he performs his many and varied duties and fulfills his responsibilities . . . with keen ability . . . integrity . . . and sincere willingness . . . some of these duties even require him to travel through all parts of the world . . . In spite of the time he must spend in his scheduled activities . . . he still finds time to take a personal interest in the individual students and to take part in many of the campus affairs . . . Juniatians are indeed fortunate to be represented by a man of such dignity, personal attributes, congeniality and apparent ability . . . a man who in his years of service at Juniata has contributed much to the fine reputation of the school on College Hill . . .

Bonnie serves punch and cookies at the President's tea.

President and Mrs. Ellis await the arrival of the new students.

DR. MORLEY MAYS
Dean of the College

DEANS OF THE COLLEGE

Known to all of us . . . are our three deans—Mr. Morley Mays, Dean of the College—Barbara Bechtel, Dean of Women—Paul Heberling, Dean of Men . . . each with his own duties to perform . . . yet never too busy to lend a helping hand to those in need of assistance . . .

Dean Mays . . . a friend to all Juniata students . . . winner of confidence through his ready smile . . . head of the academic program . . . possessor of a doctorate in the field of philosophy . . . occupied with advisory conferences, meetings, classes, and office routine . . . is second in command only to the President . . .

Senate advisor . . . administrative member of the Campus Judiciary . . . Dean Bechtel is better known at Juniata as genial hostess, friend, advisor and confidant . . . her interest, devotedness, and enthusiasm for her work are evident as she performs her many and varied duties . . . duties which keep her busy all hours of the day . . . every day of the week . . .

With us for a second year is Dean Heberling . . . a familiar figure at many college functions . . . well liked . . . experienced in the field of psychology . . . director of the Placement Bureau . . . looks after the interests of JC men . . .

ADMINISTRATION

Always available and ever helpful are our administrators . . . who with competency and poise render solutions to the many problems involved in the smooth functioning of the various phases of Juniata . . . The austerity of the word "administrator" is certainly removed by our directors and managers whose friendliness and close communication with students are a part of each day's events . . . with cooperation and liberality they show the students their purpose—to help . . . The continuity of the school year can be greatly attributed to our administration . . . they are to be thanked for helping to maintain the reputation and fine name of JC.

FACULTY

Friendliness . . . informality . . . a spirit of cooperation . . . a close student-faculty relationship . . . the characteristics which distinguish Juniata's campus from that of a larger college or university . . . Interest in the individual is evidenced by friendly greetings heard as student and professor meet . . . Students may become well acquainted with the members of the faculty during the year . . . and know them as individuals instead of only as professors . . . through clubs . . . churches . . . their homes . . . the Faculty Reception . . . and other activities in which both participate . . . Always available to guide, counsel, and encourage . . . they help the student realize his capabilities . . . In the same spirit of friendliness and informality which is so much a part of life on the campus of Juniata College . . . we present the members of the faculty.

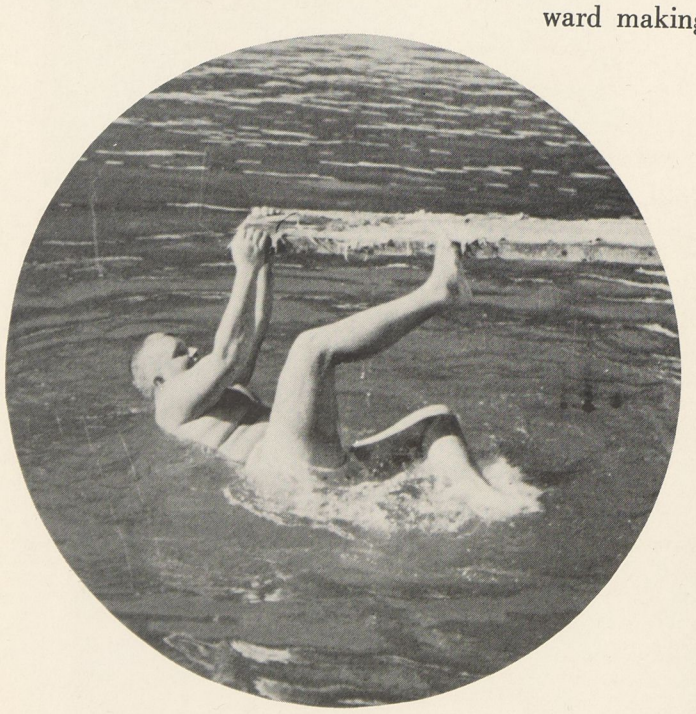
LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Camp Kanestake seems quite synonymous with the lure of a conference weekend . . . For it is here at this beautiful site that the annual retreat of campus leaders is held . . . this two-day meeting is a chance for some lively pre-semester fun as well as a time for serious discussion of campus problems and their solution . . . Resolutions adopted were concerned with points ranging from the continued promotion of an honor system to the custody of WJC equipment . . . With the termination of conference work, the conferees then turned to play . . . Songfests, softball, and hiking were all somehow crowded into the busy hours . . . Dinner with the faculty was a fitting climax to the weekend . . . Then it was back to school for this weary group of 60 students . . . All were ready to embark on another year on College Hill . . . This year soon began with the arrival of the freshmen the following day and continued with efforts directed toward making the resolutions a reality.



"Really, Pete, water's nothing to be afraid of."

A moment of relaxation for our campus leaders.

HOMECOMING

October 11 dawned crisp and clear with wind whipping away at the numerous colorful displays bedecking the lawns of J.C.'s campus. Amid merry shouts of victorious Frosh we completed our busy morning and were more than ready for the battle as our "Big White" fought its way to victory over Moravian. Halftime . . . Homecoming Queen XI, Jacque Rowland Walters, placed the sparkling crown on the head of Miss Homecoming XII, Bonnie Meadows . . . attended by Lucy Kriebel and Judy Garman. Lastly . . . the thrill of dancing around a make-believe lake . . . bringing to a close another successful Homecoming Day.

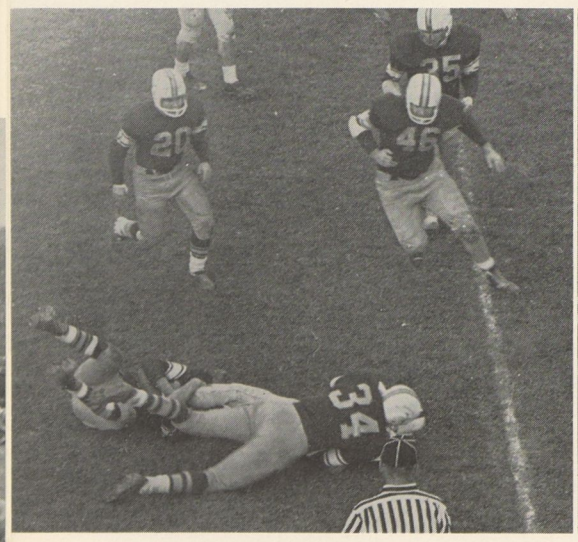
J.C. ACHIEVES FIFTH UNDEFEATED SEASON

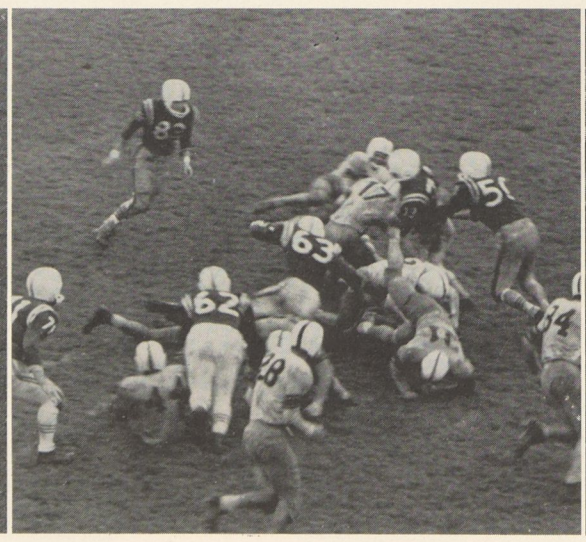
The northern division championship of the Middle Atlantic Conference in their first year and record-breaking performances by junior fullback Bill Berrier featured this year's attack as the Indians completed their fifth undefeated season in six campaigns.

The Tribe, coached by Ken Bunn, Charles Godlasky and Don Shover, finished with an over-all 7-0-1 seasonal record and extended the undefeated streak to 20 games and straight victories on College Field.

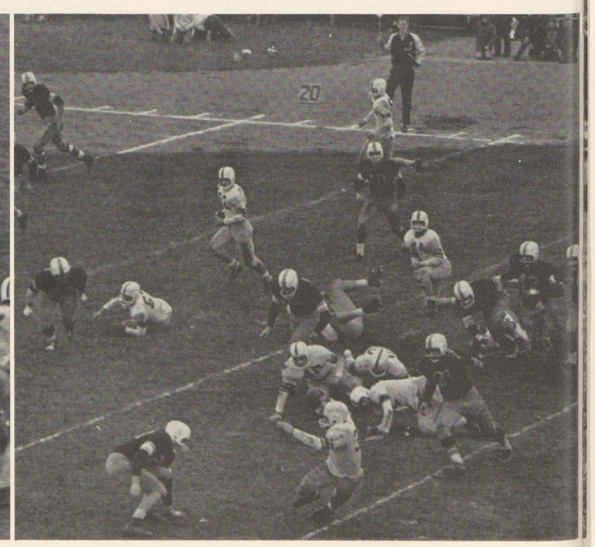
Berrier smashed five records to pace the offensive attack with 110 points, 17 touchdowns, 736 yards gained including 213 in the Albright contest for a single game high and 256 career points with a year of eligibility remaining.



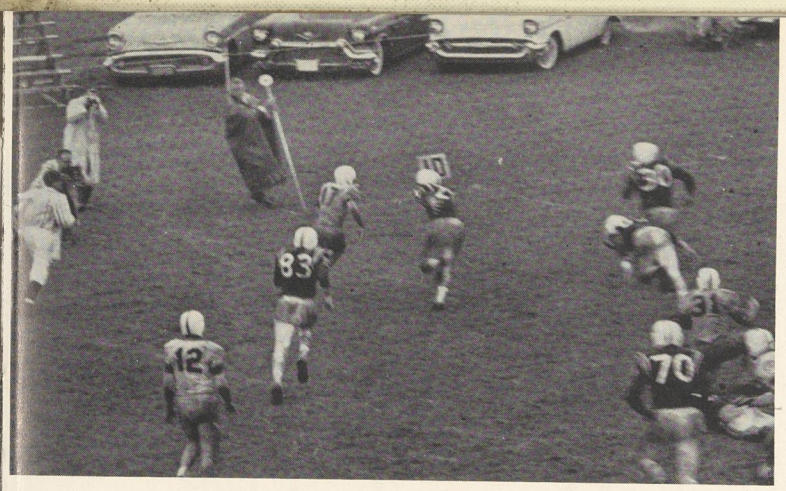
Never mind the ball . . . where's my head?!



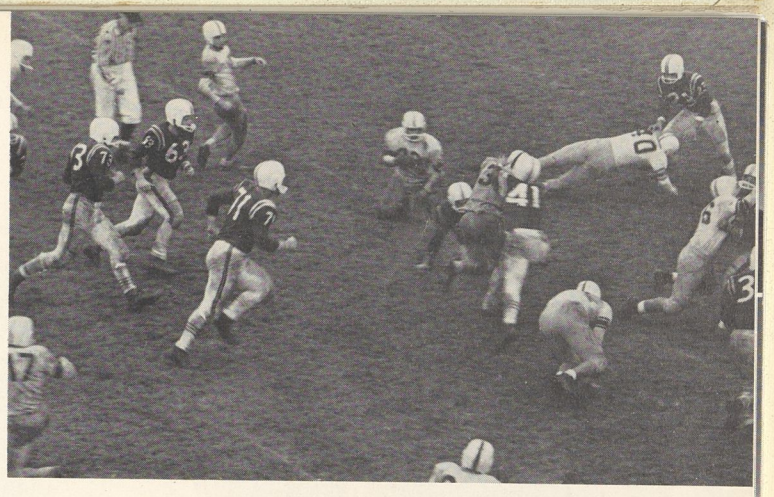
Foiled again!



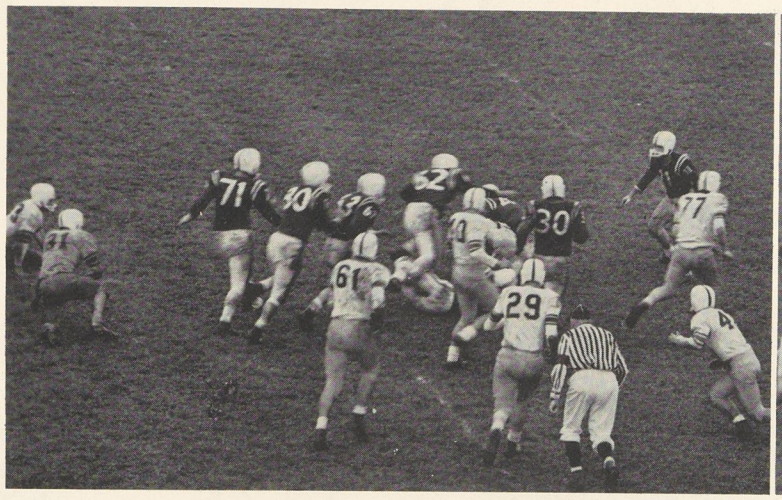
Terpsichore had nothing on our boys



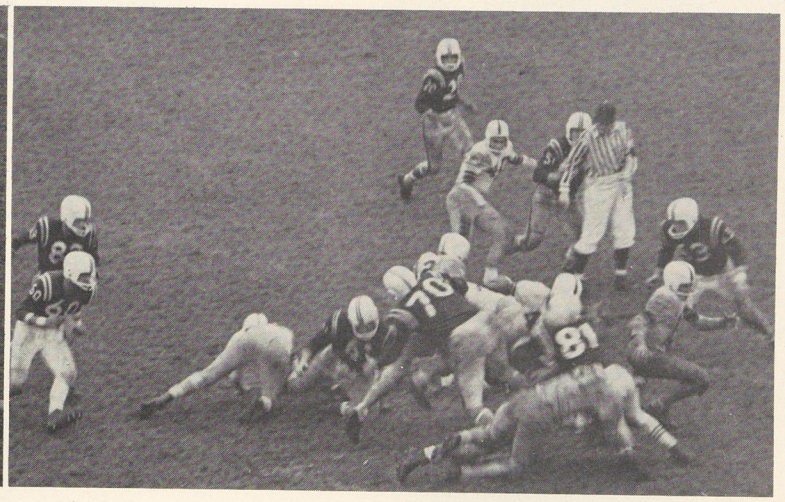
Where'd our team go?



Some "camera shys" would do anything!



See how they run . . .



I thought YOU had it.

Senior Bob Sill was the leading pass receiver and runner-up in the rushing and scoring departments, while quarterbacks Bob Schwalenberg and Dave Goodling directed the team to 252 points scored, only a single point shy of tieing the seasonal team scoring mark.

A key factor to the team's success was the tremendous line play as four opponents were deprived of scoring. Limiting their opponents to a mere 46 points, the forward wall consisting of ends senior co-captain Ken Opipery and Harold Krause, tackles Al Dungan and Bob Solomon, guards Roy Martin and "Fats" Falcione, and center Frank Rocco stood out throughout the year.

HARRIERS SWEEP ALL FOES

Juniata's cross-country team completed its third and most successful season this year by going undefeated for the second straight year. The Indian harriers, coached by Mike Snider, compiled a record of seven wins and no defeats. Their unbeaten skein is now at 11. The team's three year record is 14 victories and just one loss.

All year the hilltoppers were paced by sophomore Don Layman and senior Herb Deuchar. Layman set the JC course record in winning the meet against Elizabethtown. Able backing was given the frontrunners by sophomore Galen Heckman, senior Bill Lafe and freshmen Charlie Mack and Ned Smith. In addition to Deuchar and Lafe, Jim Pettit and Joe Senft completed their cross-country careers this season.

JC's outstanding sixth place finish in the 18 team Middle Atlantic Championship run capped the season.

WINTER

Autumn faded into the greyness of winter . . . the once colorful trees became dark silhouettes against the snow-laden sky . . . but the color had not gone out of campus life . . . for each class was in competition against the other . . . vying for the All Class Night trophy . . . the club program was then in full swing . . . Memorial Gym echoed with shouts of a cheering crowd as cagemen dribbled, passed, and shot against tough competition . . . then, too, it was the season of Christmas with all its beauty . . . beauty shared in vision as well as spirit . . . shared in viewing the decorations . . . in taking a child to the Christmas Party . . . in singing carols . . . in going to the Christmas Dance . . .

BASKETBALL 1958-59

The Indian cage team toyed with a level slate in the first two-thirds of the season.

The basketballers, coached by Dr. T. Arnold Greene, won their first four contests but then dropped five successive encounters, including three in the first Bridgewater Invitational Tournament over the Christmas holidays.

The cagers snapped the losing streak in their most impressive showing over the Westminster Titans and then see-sawed wins and losses.

Four lettermen plus a junior transfer student bolstered the starting five. Gordon Ewers, a 6-1 forward from McKeesport and Bob Ewald, a 6-6 center, both seniors, filled two of the positions and were selected co-captains for the year. Sophomore Jack Heading, a forward, and junior Curt Gardner were first semester starters but were dropped at the half-year point due to academic difficulties.

Don Burnich, a 5-6 guard who transferred from Pitt's Johnstown Center, filled the fifth slot and paced the offensive department, averaging over 20 points per game.

Steve Gerlock, senior Mike Miller, Ed Costello and two mid-season returnees from last year's squad, senior Ron Wertz and Al Dungan, served limited action and filled the two open gaps at semesters.

The Indians were one of the top teams entered in the Middle Atlantic Conference.

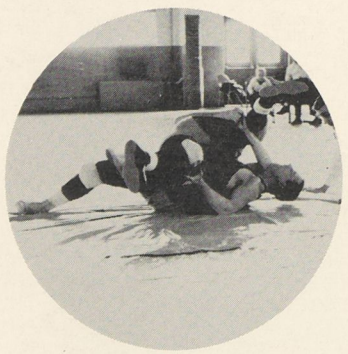
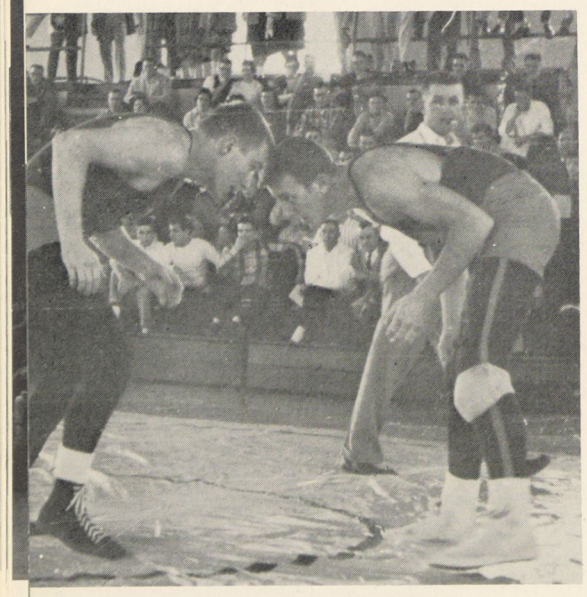
WRESTLING



Who's got who?

Wrestling was introduced to Juniata's campus this winter on an unofficial intercollegiate basis. In all probability it will be officially added to the JC athletic program next year.

The 0-3-1 record does not indicate the enthusiasm with which wrestling was received by the fans and the participants. Already the mat sport has gained a high place in the eyes of Juniatians and should be a welcome addition to campus life as JC's second winter sport.



The theory is . . .

TENNIS

Suffering badly from lack of depth, the Juniata netmen compiled un unenviable two win—six loss record in 1958.

Senior Chuck Seeley, and freshmen Jack Merrill and Jerry Leatherman, were the mainstays of Coach Bob McFadden's squad while Del McQuaide, Pete Wright, Dick Ott, and Jim Leer provided the needed balance. Although dropping the first six contests to Indiana, Elizabethtown, Penn State, Dickenson,and Albright, the Tribe showed steady improvement and came on late in the season to defeat St. Francis and Lycoming. All members of the squad received varsity letters and Chuck Seeley was awarded the annual tennis trophy as the most valuable player.

Mr. James Thomas will mentor the netmen this season. With Merrill and Ott the only returning regulars, the squad will be counting on untried freshmen to fill the gaps left by graduation.

GOLF

With the loss of only two lettermen, Juniata's golf squad can look forward to a better campaign in 1959 than their no win, nine loss record last season.

Shut out in their first encounters, Coach Bill Germann's linksmen showed steady improvement, being edged only in close decisions by Shippensburg, Lycoming and St. Francis. Seriously hampered by lack of depth, the Indians never rallied enough strength to defeat Gettysburg and Bucknell.

Sophomore letterman Jay Gettig from Verona was winner of the C. Blair Miller golf award for the second year. Gettig finished a respectable second in the Middle Atlantics meet which saw the Tribe place 14th of 18 entries.

Other members of the squad were: Steve Gerlock, Pat Conners, Phil Over, Carl Nauroth, and Neil Donner.

BASEBALL

Three sophomores and a freshman battery combination paced the Indians through another fine intercollegiate baseball season.

Winning nine of 11 contests, the well-balanced unit finished with an .818 mark for only the sixth time in 55 seasons to exceed .800.

Don Ross, smooth-fielding third baseman, paced his heavy-hitting teammates with a lofty .543 average to capture the batting title. Ross also led the team with 19 hits and scored 12 runs.

Freshman Ron Reynolds carried off the pitching honors by winning seven out of eight, including big wins over Albright, Buchnell and Pitt.

Twins Bill and Jim Berrier and Jack Meenan followed in the batting order. Bill, the leading rbi man with 11, batted .311, brother Jim swatted. 311 and led extra bases, while catcher Jack Meenan hit at a .310 average.

The key to the Indians' success was hitting where they had a .292 batting mark compared to their opponents' .223.

TRACK

Coach Mike Snider's thinclads faced some very rugged competition in winning but one of four track meets for the 1958 season.

Opening the season against Lock Haven's Teachers, the Tribe found the going very rough, particularly in the sprinting events, and dropped its first meet by a score of 52 1/2 to 79 2/3.

In its only triangular meet the Indians came out second best, trailing a powerful Albright squad but finished ahead of a respectable Lebanon Valley outfit.

Muhlenburg was the only team to fall victim to the Tribe. Amassing a large number of points both in the track and field events, the thinclads rang up its highest point total in recent years with a 90-36 triumph.

Dickinson and Bucknell downed the Tribe in its last two meets of the season by close scores. The victory in the Dickinson meet especially was not decided until the final event.

Sophomore Dick Johnson, set and broke his own javelin record twice during the season, finishing with a record of 187' 5½".

George Cline, senior pole vault specialist, was awarded the J. Foster Gehrett track award.

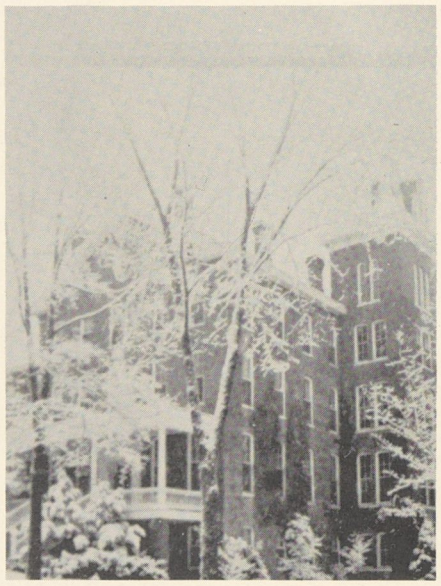
LIFE IN THE "LITTLE LEAGUE"

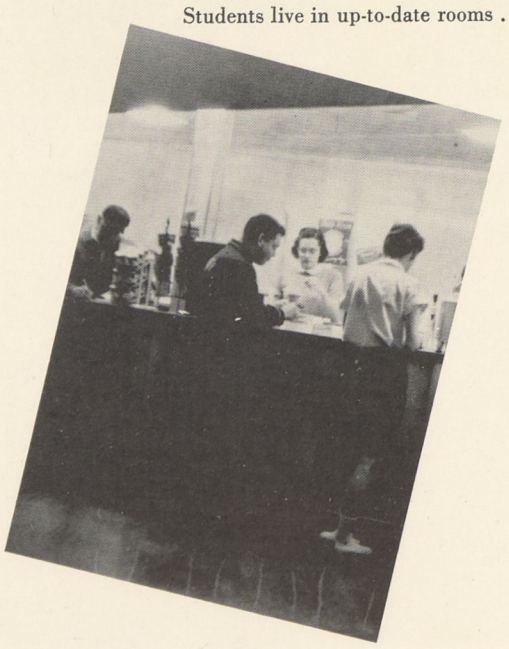


Juniata is a modern . . .

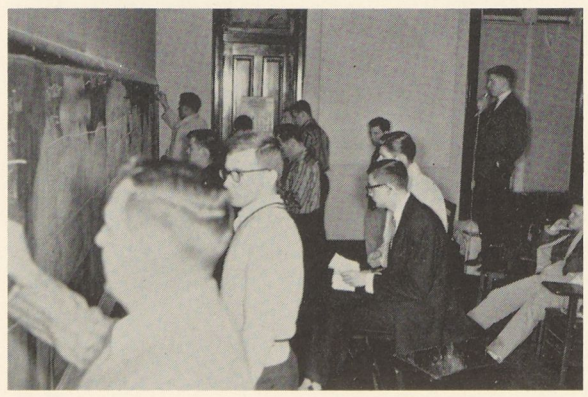
. . . co-educational college.

Students live in up-to-date rooms . . .

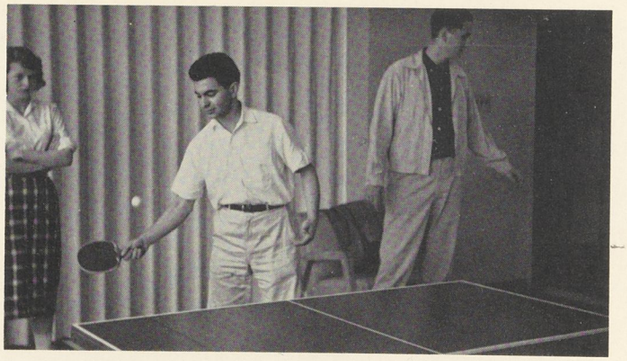
. . . in the dormitories,



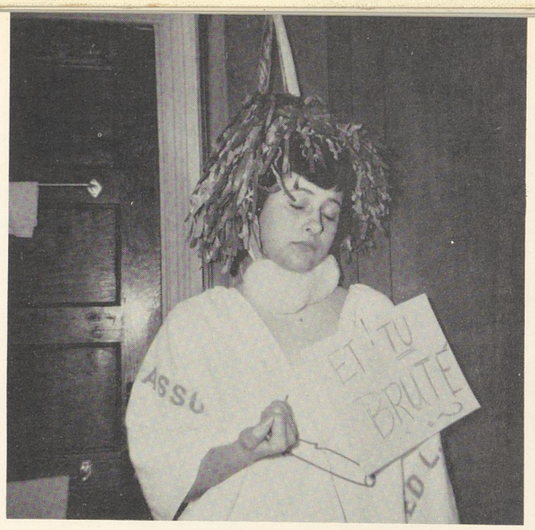
eat in the college dining hall,



and attend seminar-sized classes in Students Hall.



The typical Juniata student studies constantly



because the Dean's List student is honored and revered, is productive,

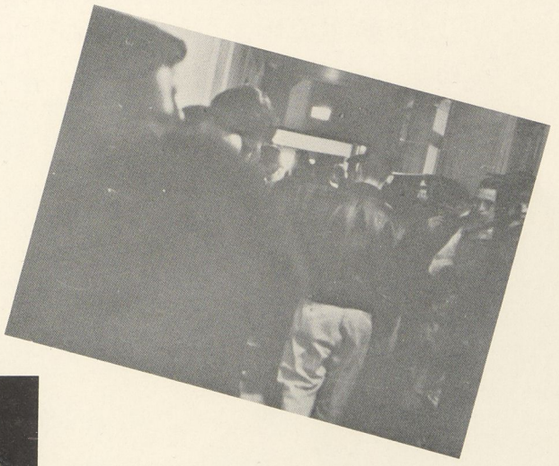
and conservative.

He knows that he must also attend to his spiritual needs, so attends chapel faithfully.



Juniata being the small, cozy place it is, students never become "lost in a crowd."

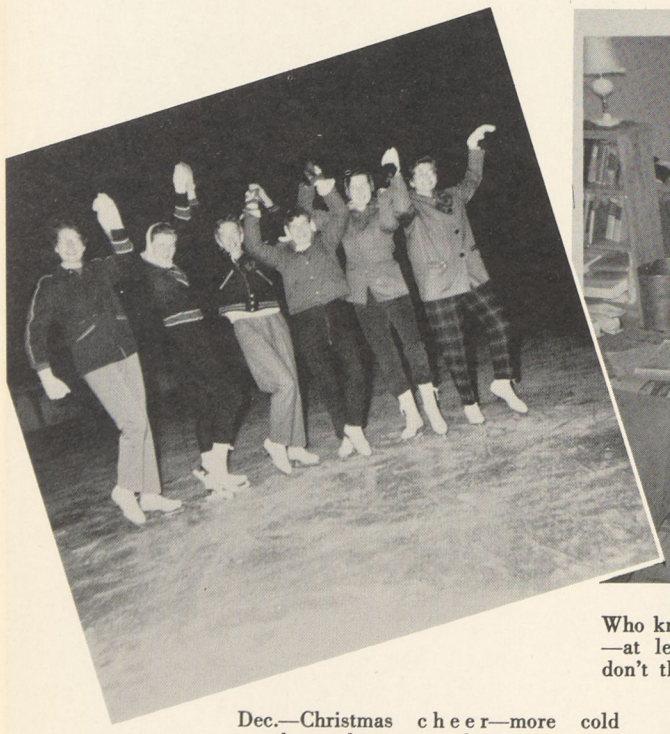
Foreign students are welcomed.

SENIOR DIARY

Deer Diry: Sept.—Leadership Conference for the last time—squint eyes and sunburn—late hours and food!

Oct.—Mountain Day—Paradise—three scratches and one bruise—tired feet . . . and food!

Nov.—Homecoming—cold weather—gone with the wind (our hall display)—one month till Thanksgiving . . . and food!



Dec.—Christmas c h e e r—more cold weather—who cares that comps are only four months away—let's live.

Who knows what month it is?—Comprehensive blues—at least Spanish majors know when to study—don't they, Sal?

It's all over now but the good-byes—it's been great, kids, we'll miss you all . . .

THE LAST WORD

After many hours of work and many more hours of worry, at last the yearbook is a task completed. We, the staff and editors of the 1959 Alfarata, hope that you, the students, will find as much pleasure in reading the pages as we have found in producing them.

Now that another year is just another "bound memory," I should like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to all those who helped to recapture the occasions—both great and small—that are found within the pages of this book . . . First, thanks must go to Andi Katai who is responsible for many of the fine pictures that tell the stories, and also to those photographers—Jim Shoenthal, Pete Fahrney and Nevin Albright who so willingly pitched in when the going got rough.

No yearbook would be complete without the writing, and for this I owe a special thanks to Leora Furlong, literary editor, and Carol Brueckman the "caption girl." Barry Sipes, our sports editor, did a remarkable job keeping tabs on all the action in the year's world of sports. Carole Miller, Jane Herbster, and Jane Brumbaugh were the official detectives for seeking out those hard to spell names, and Carolynn Wiant pounded the keyboard night and day to help me make those necessary deadlines. Of course I cannot forget Dick Johnson, my business manager, who worked so hard to keep the Alfarata out of the "red." As for Lucy Kriebel, the work of this talented miss speaks well for itself, and I need only add "thank you, Lucy."

This is it—the 1959 Alfarata—may it bring you pleasure and happy memories.
